Date on which the narrative summary became available on the Committee's website:
28 March 2016

Nayef Salam Muhammad Ujaym al-Hababi was listed on 28 March 2016 pursuant to paragraphs 3 and 5 of resolution 2253 (2015) as being associated with ISIL or Al-Qaida for “participating in the financing, planning, facilitating, preparing, or perpetrating of acts or activities by, in conjunction with, under the name of, on behalf of, or in support of”; “supplying, selling or transferring arms and related materiel to” and “otherwise supporting acts or activities of” Al-Qaida (QDe.004).

Additional information:

As of 2015, Nayef Salam Muhammad Ujaym al-Hababi (al-Hababi) is the Al-Qaida (QDe.004) emir for the eastern zone of Afghanistan, where he has operated since at least 2009. Al-Hababi reports to Al-Qaida’s senior leadership. He has led an Al-Qaida battalion in Afghanistan since at least mid-2010 and was responsible for finding a new sanctuary for Al-Qaida, as of mid-2015.

Al-Hababi has been involved in authorizing spending and raising funds on behalf of Al-Qaida since 2010. As of 2015, al-Hababi, in his role as Al-Qaida emir for the eastern zone of Afghanistan, directed the delivery of funds and weapons to Taliban associates in Afghanistan for use in future attacks. As of 2012, al-Hababi solicited funds from supporters in Gulf countries to support Al-Qaida’s external operations and expected to receive funds from Gulf-based donors for activities in Afghanistan as well. Al-Hababi directed the purchase of weapons, including rocket propelled grenades, to distribute to militants in Afghanistan, as of 2010.

Between at least 2012 and 2015, al-Hababi planned and provided support for Al-Qaida attacks against international forces in Afghanistan and helped plan Al-Qaida’s external operations. As of 2015, al-Hababi, in his role as Al-Qaida emir for the eastern zone, worked on attack plans for fighting in northeast Afghanistan. Al-Hababi and his battalion in early 2013 intended to take control of Kunar Province, Afghanistan, and establish a base to launch external operations on behalf of Al-Qaida. Al-Hababi planned to carry out attacks in the United States and other countries in revenge for the deaths of senior Al-Qaida leaders. As of 2012, suicide bombers affiliated with al-Hababi were tasked to attack Afghan bases and international convoys in Afghanistan. For several years, al-Hababi has been in charge of Al-Qaida-sponsored training in northeast Afghanistan, providing training and funds to fighters to conduct operations.

As of 2011, Al-Hababi was a senior Al-Qaida member consulting on Al-Qaida operations worldwide. Al-Hababi also participated in two 2010 attacks against international forces convoys resulting in the destruction of at least one vehicle and in 2009 led operations in northeast Afghanistan that included attacks against United States military bases.
